The Prez Sez

With fall in full swing and the holidays just around the corner, it is a great time to sit in front of a fire and reflect on the year's adventures. Our November meeting is our annual Cascade Family slide show which is like watching home movies. We all get together and reminisce about our adventures of the year. It is always a great time with pictures of beautiful scenery and different fishing locations that our members visited this year. Please submit any photos you would like to share to Roz Kauffman as soon as possible, so she has plenty of time to put together this year's presentation.

Also at the November meeting CFF Officer and Board member elections will be held. The Nominating Committee has come up with a super group of nominees. Be sure to come to cast your vote for the club's leadership committee. Remember our November meeting is a week earlier than usual, set for Thursday, November 16th.

Our annual auction was a roaring success. A big thank you goes to Frank and Kat Paiva. All their hard work paid off. It was well organized and some great items helped Cascade Family raise the money we use throughout the year to bring in speakers, teach classes and clinics, support youth education and host outings. Thanks again, Frank, Kat and all the other volunteers, for making the auction such a great success.

CFF is hosting another fly tying gathering at Leaburg Fire Station on Saturday, November 18th. It is a potluck, so bring a favorite dish to share. These are informal gatherings just to tie flies together, share experiences and techniques, and learn from each other. We encourage new tyers to come. It is a great opportunity to gain experience.

On Saturday, December 2th, the CFF leadership will be getting together to plan the activities of the club for the year. As always, members are encouraged to come. Your input is always welcome.

We will be hosting our annual holiday party on Thursday, December 14th at Roaring Rapids Pizza in place of our December meeting. More information will be forthcoming. There won't be a December newsletter so we are getting the information out early. Hope to see you there.

Being the last newsletter of the year, I'd like to give a big thank you to Roz Kauffman for all her hard work and dedication putting together such a fantastic newsletter each month for the membership. Thank you Roz.

Randy

CFF Auction 2017
By Frank and Katherine Paiva

Thank you to the many members of CFF who lent time, ideas, and helping hands to make the 2017 Auction such a great success!

Moving the Auction to the Springfield Elks Lodge allowed us more room for the many donations that poured in throughout the year. And what great donations they were! We gathered items at meetings, made innumerable trips to homes, and met in parking lots to pick up a variety of fishing and outdoor recreation goods. We washed, polished, spiffed up, and looked up values on almost every item. Those that were broken, didn't work, or smelled funny were discarded or donated, some were bundled with others, and a few were saved for next year. A couple of things even disappeared – those seat swivels are in the garage somewhere!

Committee members gave freely of their time throughout the year, and helped with set-up, clean-up, and in Joe and Dennis' case, blow-up, of our flotilla of float tubes. Check-in and Check-out ran smoothly under Michelle, Trese, and Jen's expertise, as did the delayed opening of the Buy-it-Now table run by Steve, Vic, and Glenn. Baskets were a popular seller, and the Silent Auction tables nearly sold out as members picked up bargains and treasures. And, as usual, the ever-popular Night-on-the-River floats sold out in a jiffy!

Special thanks to our Auctioneers Glenn Miller, Ginnie Grilley, Steve Overall, and Randy Beard, and spotters Dennis Munroe, Micheal T, Joe Moody, and Alan Corbin for rallying the crowd to bid more and bid higher. And a special thank you to those CFF members who procured rods, waders, and stays, tied such awesome flies (!), created beautiful fishing related items, and those who offered their hand made foods, crafts, and accommodations for the Live Auction. Thanks too, to Leroy Miller and Wally Larsen for capturing the event on film.

Because of these united efforts the entire club will benefit. Funds raised at this year's Auction will go toward educational and informative speakers, and the funding of outings and youth outreach programs, and more! Thank you for your contributions!

If you have any ideas or suggestions for improving next year's Auction or questions, please give us a call at (541) 515-6369, or email us at paivakm@gmail.com or fpai1ops@aol.com.

Remember, for the month of October 2018 – Tuesday, not Thursday. See you there next year!

A Mystery no more ...

By Katherine Paiva

The item generating the most interest at the CFF Auction was the President's Mystery

Box. Sitting there in the Live Auction table, small, red, and decorated with stars (one that shines in the dark) it's contents unknown, it exuded mystery. Perplexing clues over the months included; "something sweet, Blue fish, something to cozy up to, and some decisions are hard." We've waited and wondered, what could it be? Frank and I were the lucky bidders on the box and the unveiling was more than we could have imagined.

It's not just what went into the President's Mystery Box that made it spectacular, it was the thought, the time, and the talent. Most of the items were created by Randy - and they were extraordinary.

- Need a blue fish bubble machine, Michelle created trout bracelet, or woman's fish themed shirt? Got it.
- Need three beautifully embroidered fish themed hand towels, a men's short sleeve fishing shirt, or a rockin' assortment of Randy's awesomely tied fool-proof flies? In there.
- How about four soft reel holders (created by Randy's daughter) that will later be embroidered with the CFF logo, an insulated fish themed tumbler, or rainbow trout socks to keep your feet snug and cozy? In the box.
- Of course the Bee King would include honey from the S.O.B. Honey Cooperative (Slocum, Overall & Beard) - honeycomb, Trese's honey tea stirrers, and golden jars of sticky from all of the co-op hives. Done yet? Nope.

If you were to wish for a new rod, say a Sage X, Sage Method, Winston Boron III, Epic Glass, CF Burkheimer or Salt Option - one made to your own specifications; blank, action, weight, length, grip shape, guides, reel seat and thread color - made by someone who is a stickler for details, quality, and end result, who would that person be? My pick would be Randy - and that too was in the President's Mystery Box. Unbelievable!

We were most impressed by the contents of the President's Mystery box and thankful to Randy for spending so much time and thought creating such an incredible donation to benefit Cascade Family Fly Fishers.

But he wasn't done yet. When the rod is done and the day is right, Randy will take us down the river to give the rod a spin and get to know each other better. Can't wait!

Volunteer Opportunity

Salmon Watch, an experiential education program centered in salmon biology is on-going and will continue at the Whittaker campground (off Hwy 126 towards the coast) on most weekdays until November 22nd. This year Marv Clemons has joined the ranks of CFF Salmon Watch volunteers and is having a blast teaching about macro-invertebrates. Others teach riparian ecology, water quality, and salmon biology. The majority of the classes are students from Eugene and Springfield middle schools but this photo shows a class of students from Crow High school who attended on November 2nd. There is still a need for volunteers and if you'd like to help, please give me a call.
