A lot going on the last couple of months. We almost lost the sun. Thankfully it came back. Hopefully everyone had a chance to enjoy the eclipse.

I would like to thank everyone involved in putting on CFF's annual picnic. I would like to thank the Overalls for hosting the event, and Dave and Steve for jumping in at the barbeque. Also thanks go to Michael T for filling in for Marv at the casting competition. It was appreciated to have so many people clean up at the end. It was nice to see so many new faces as well as the old faces.

Between the heat and the fires, it has been challenging to get out, but there are still many opportunities to go fishing. I plan on heading to the Owyhee and joining up with John Higby on his hosting of the Blitzen outing, Friday through Sunday, September 22-24th. These will both be new rivers for me and I am looking forward to the adventure. Also don't forget the Diamond Lake outing with Marv Clemons hosting. It was moved up this year to avoid the cold weather. Dates are Friday through Sunday, October 6 - 8th.

Club elections are coming up. Come share your ideas for the club direction and activities. If you would be interested in joining the leadership team, please contact me or any of the board members.

The auction is coming fast. Contact the Paivas for any items to be donated. Because of the new location and organization, we are requesting items to be donated early this year. Any late donations may be held until 2018.

Our speaker for the September meeting is Jeff Perin. He is a well known speaker and his topic is Central Oregon Highlights. Hope to see you there. And by the way, the President's box for the CFF auction is building nicely.

Jeff Perin
Central Oregon
Highlights

Jeff Perin, long time owner of an excellent fly shop in Sisters, Oregon, The Fly Fisher's Place, will share another of his exquisite presentations---September 28, 2017. Among the "highlights" are four rivers and three lakes. The rivers: Crooked, Deschutes, Fall and Metolius. The lakes: East, Hosmer and Three Creeks. Knowing Jeff, he may have a surprise addition to this classy group of Central Oregon fly fishing destinations!

At age four, Jeff Perin got his start fishing East Lake, thanks to mentoring by his grandparents. Jeff began guiding on Fall River and East Lake while a Freshman in college. Expect to witness an "animated clinic" on techniques gleaned from an extensive fly fishing background---tailored to Central Oregon waters. Jeff Perin has a depth fly fishing experience gleaned from iconic waters in Argentina, Chile, Russia, New Zealand, Mexico, Belize, Christmas Island, Alaska, Florida Keys--- and the American West!

Jeff Perin is married, enjoys three dogs, and when not guiding or running The Fly Fisher's Place---or fishing somewhere in the world, likes to hike forest trails near his home in Sisters, Oregon.

I have invited Jeff to Newman's Grotto, 485 Coburg Road Eugene, OR 97401 to participate in the CFF pre-meeting no-host dinner opportunity. Folks usually begin arriving around 5pm.

Presentation is Everything....in fly fishing and food

A special thanks to Randy Beard, Dave Prindel, and Vic Hadley for cooking up an extraordinary dinner for six, an item donated at last year's Auction. The menu read like something from a 5-star restaurant; honeycomb honey appetizer, fresh shrimp with homemade cocktail sauce and salmon stuffed jalapenos, tossed greens with special dressing, cloud-fluffy dinner rolls, fish (salmon) served in a "fish" with a tasty corn side dish, homemade vanilla ice cream and famous Vic Hadley individual blueberry pies.

Those enjoying the evening included Jim Breedlove, Michael T. Williams, Marian Lil, Betty Capt, and Frank and Katherine Paiva.

We were stuffed by night's end and left with doggie bags to enjoy the next day. Thanks again Randy, Dave and Vic for all your efforts in supporting the club, for the delicious meal! And for donating wine that was not consumed to this year's Auction. A great time was had by all.

Cascade Family Flyfishers has an outstanding commitment to the art of fly tying. Our yearly classes coordinated by Rob Roth have been a welcomed winter respite for new tiers and experts alike. The monthly Fly Swap would love to increase participation from more members. If you are not inclined to practice your art of tying by watching DVD's or YouTube videos, remember that the CFF Library has a number of excellent fly tying books, classics and newer editions. Even if you do use other media to support your passion for tying, browsing through books can help inspire you to try a new pattern or tweak your old favorites.

Check out the website for the list of books available for checkout. If you see one you like, email me your request to bring it to the meeting for viewing with no obligation to check it out.

Please remember to return your checked out items at the September meeting.

Reminder – the CFF Auction will be held on Tuesday, October 24th this year, NOT Thursday, our regular meeting day

Greetings All! The countdown is on the CFF Auction on Tuesday, October 24th. Remember, this is our one-and-only fundraiser for the year, so we hope you all come out to support the club and take home some great bargains!

We've had some great things come in this month and we just finished bundling up more than 15 gift baskets! Thanks to Michelle Overall, Brandy Williford, and Jen Acosta for their help.

We're still collecting donations! Items are needed for the Silent, Live, and Buy-it-Now tables. Don't know what to donate? Here are a few ideas? Lightly used fishing or camping equipment or clothing. Something you made by hand or canned; jam, jelly, fruit, a re-gifted fish themed gift, anything that could be added to a basket or bundled with other items. A golf outing? A Duck gift basket with a couple of tickets to any U of O sporting event? A teaching experience – Do you make beer? Put up your own cider? Any hobby that you know well and would like to teach or pass on to others would make a great donation.

If you have any donations, please bring them to the September meeting on the 28th. Or give Frank and I call and we will arrange pick up. Deadline for donations is Thursday, October 12th.

- This month's featured Live Auction item:

The Women of CFF Fly Box –Bid on steelhead and still water flies, including nymphs and emergers, tied by Gail Campbell, Trese Slocum, Roz Kauffman, Katherine Paiva, Betty Capt, Marian Lill, and Brandy Williford. Gail is a long time tier, but the rest of the group started tying as a result of Rod Roth's classes.

- Buy-it-Now item:

A full set of tournament tested Ping golf clubs (irons and wedges)

- Silent Auction item:

A Honey Bucket/Basket of items from the S.O.B (Slocum, Overall & Beard) Honey Cooperative, featuring honey from the banks of the McKenzie and Willamette Rivers and the Coburg hills. This stuff is liquid gold. Enjoy honey, honey comb, Fishy Fingers Lotion Bar, Randy's Bee Lip Balm, and tasty honey related food items!

Presidents Mystery Box

What gems lurk within the confines of the President's Mystery Box? We haven't any idea and this month's clue, "Some decisions are really hard" doesn't help much. Is it hard plastic? Something metal? A hard decision -- like how many of one thing to put into the box? Only time will tell. Find out during the CFF Live Auction on Tuesday, October 24th.
